EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

- Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);
- Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);
- Active military duty in a military combat zone.

5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the information provided above is true and correct.

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

The Chapter 13 payment shown above is only an estimate and may increase or decrease based on a number of factors including, but not limited to, claims filed, balances on debts, increased income, decreased expenses, or differences in values of assets/property, or any changes in state or federal law. Some non-dischargeable debts could survive the Bankruptcy.

PARTIES: This agreement is entered into between Trepeck Law Group, LLC (LG) (not any individual attorney or agent of LG), a debt relief agency and law firm and the person indicated below (Client) on date below. Client has retained LG as its attorneys to consult and advise Client regarding a bankruptcy, as indicated herein. LG agrees to use its best efforts and abilities in representing Client. LG is not retained to represent/appear for Client in any other state or federal proceedings. FEES: Client agrees to pay LG the flat fee indicated (earned upon receipt), court costs, and fees for credit reports (disclosed above). The attorneys' fee provided does not include costs for: mandatory credit counseling or debtor education requirements; or third party fees for due diligence requirements (ie. appraisals/comparative market analyses, credit reports, tax transcripts, title searches, etc.). The filing fee is separate from other fees. Any Chapter 13 post-petition portions of the fee, as indicated, shall be paid through the Chapter 13 Plan. Should the case be dismissed prior to LG receiving the full post-petition balance due, such balance is due and must be paid within 14 days of said dismissal. LG retains the right to refer Client's account for collection without further notice where Client will also be responsible for reasonable collection costs, including attorneys' fees and court costs. Client acknowledges that there may be additional attorneys' fees and court costs incurred in the event of Conversion to a different Chapter under the Bankruptcy Code. Client agrees to reimburse LG for any reasonable costs and fees incurred by LG as a result of dishonored checks/ACH payments (no less than $35). Client agrees to pay attorneys' fees in a timely manner. If fees are not paid timely, LG reserves the right to close Client's file and terminate services. Should Client want to reopen the file with LG, LG may re-evaluate the file, charge additional fees and/or require additional information. BASIC SERVICES: LG agrees to provide basic bankruptcy legal services, which include, but are not limited to: taking creditor calls; advice before/during the case regarding bankruptcy rules and their nature/effect on Client; preparation/filing of bankruptcy petition and schedules; represent Client at the Meeting of Creditors and confirmation hearings; settling valuation disputes prior to confirmation; submitting information for trustee requests; and other regular services not specifically stated. NON-BASIC SERVICES (additional fees): Client understands LG can charge an additional $100 to review reaffirmation agreements and sign off on such (such fee includes review of budget and filing needed necessary). The basic attorney fee (without an additional charge) includes advice to Client about the reaffirmation process. LG may charge additional fees (standard billable rate) for any non-basic services where a regular fee is not indicated (ie. adversary proceedings; actions to enforce the automatic stay; actions to enforce the discharge injunction; Rule 2004 examinations; depositions; interrogatories; or other discovery proceedings (other than the initial Meeting of Creditors); contested matters; delays caused by Client). LG can also charge additional fees for: a continued Meeting of Creditors, if continued because of Client's failure to appear or failure to bring photo i.d. and social security card ($300); motions to avoid liens ($250 per motion); motions for redemption under §722; redemption and replacement loan review, motions, and related work ($600); retrieval and duplication of documents and information; Amendments to creditors' schedules ($200 plus $26 filing fee). BILLABLE RATES: Where hourly rates apply, LG shall charge $325 per hour for attorney time and $75 per hour for non-attorney time, with such rates subject to periodic review and increase to remain comparable with similar firms/attorneys. TERMINATION: If Client wishes to end services with LG, Client shall notify LG in writing. Client will receive an accounting for time/services rendered (within a reasonable time) and a refund check, if any refund is due. To determine fees earned, LG shall use its standard hourly billing rates for time expended. LG's services will automatically terminate at dismissal and/or entry of a discharge order, except where Client seeks to enforce dismissal/discharge, and where Client seeks to reverse same. DUTIES: In addition to other obligations from this agreement, Client also agrees to carry out obligations pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, including: providing any and all requested information and documentation to LG [as outlined in Client's folder, checklists and instruction sheets (incorporated by reference and made part herein)]; making a FULL DISCLOSURE of all property, assets, liabilities, and financial information regardless of intentions; notifying LG of any changes in address, email, phone numbers or other information; and to cooperate fully with any other requests by any person at LG. Client understands LG is a group practice where more than one attorney or assistant may have responsibilities or perform different tasks on the file. Client understands that s/he is expected to keep and maintain copies of all documents and information submitted to LG (as stated above, LG can charge a reasonable retrieval and duplication fee for information from Client's file). AUTHORIZATION & COMMUNICATION: Client's signature on this agreement authorizes LG to file a bankruptcy petition and all other filings for Client via the Bankruptcy Court's electronic system. LG will communicate with Client via email (if provided), phone and first class mail and Client understands their obligation to check notifications on all said forms. MANDATORY DISCLOSURE: The Bankruptcy Abuse and Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 requires LG to provide mandatory disclosures and notices to Client. Client acknowledges that s/he has received, read and understood the "§527(a) Notice" and the "Important Information About Bankruptcy Assistance Services From an Attorney or Bankruptcy Petition Preparer." MISCELLANEOUS: LG assumes no liability for changes in law that could affect the advice provided, based on current law and is subject to change. LG may consult with or hire co-counsel or independent attorneys, as needed, at LG's expense, to work on Client's file, dividing fees on the basis of responsibility. LG may have attorneys within the firm, or outside counsel, review client's file to explore other possible causes of action that Client may have. LG is free to hire local counsel to appear with Client at their meetings, motions or other court dates and are at the expense of LG. The entire contract is contained herein, except as otherwise noted. All local rules, procedures, and "Court-Approved Retention Agreement," with corresponding rights/obligations is specifically incorporated and made a part; Client agrees s/he is bound by additional terms and conditions.

The undersigned agree to the terms and have read and understand this Agreement.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
